Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I wrote you recently asking about a man named Edward J. Pullman. You asked me to send you a copy of the source saying he was questioned by the Commission. I have found it and enclosed it along with a photocopy of the envelope ~~=~~ I sent his letter in. I am still waiting for a back copy of the National Enquirer containing the article about him. When I get it I will send you a copy.

This man may be a totally worthless source of new information, but I still find it interesting that he was an acquaintance of Jack Ruby, that his wife worked at the Carousel, that he practices hypnotism, and that he was questioned by the Commission's legal staff.

Thank you for your time, and I hope this information will be helpful to you.

Sincerely,
Kevin Nagle
